

LES PUCES DU DESIGN

The first event in Europe that combines vintage and contemporary design

RENDEZ-VOUS from 02 > 05 DECEMBER 2021

in Paris Expo Porte de Versailles - Hall 03.1

A unique 5 000 sq.m space dedicated to design in the heart of Paris!

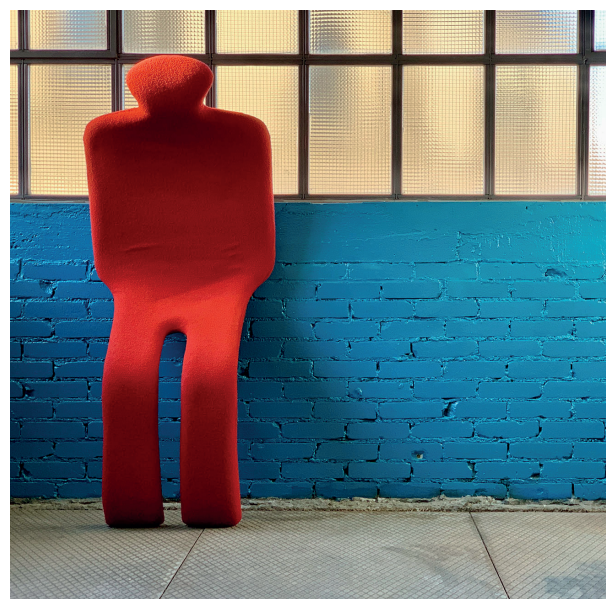

Because they were prevented for several weeks, then restricted, supervised, supervised ... we realized, if it was still necessary, of the capital importance of the meetings !

Our next meeting in December with Les Puces du Design is therefore an opportunity, more precious than ever, to (re) make great encounters ...

With passionate people ..

Choosing a profession in fashion or design is above all a choice of passion. Whether they work in the vintage or contemporary sector, the specialists gathered at Les Puces du Design all affirm their personality very loudly, which they express through selections, choices, commitments ... which go far beyond simple questions. aesthetic ...

With a committed art historian

Thibault Lannuzel, who did his thesis on Olivier Mourgue, will present on Les Puces du Design in December a hundred creations by French designers who, during the Thirty Glorious Years, defined the roles of the designer, as we see him today.

With this Génération Formes Utiles exhibition, a whole part of the history of hexagonal design is brought to light !

With an everyday object that does more than fulfill its function ...

Because light has a major role in our lives, because acquiring an original lighting can really change the soul of an interior and because lamp design has been the source of some of the finest pieces in design history ...
we have decided to pay tribute to this somewhat magical object by offering an itinerary on the event that is both rich and subjective of this inescapable and fabulous creation that is light ...
