Popy lamp - Mlle JO - 2021

This contemporary lamp combines a small curvaceous arched foot, an elegant ash wood disc hand-turned by a craftsman in Belgium and a small luminous opaline globe proudly enthroned over the set. Both lamp and tray, Popy is the latest addition to the poetic brand Mlle Jo, created by Joan Bebronne.

Suspension from the Symfoni series by Preben Dahl for Hans Følsgaard Belysing in the 1960s

This rare pendant lamp proposed by the Dutch gallery Van Ons is distinguished by a very geometric composition of steel plates which overlap and by a very subtle and refined use of color.

Ceiling lamp by Toni Cordero - Circa 1990s

This ceiling lamp presented by Ludovic Lemaître comes from the Milano-Torino series produced in very small numbers by Artemide. It combines a chromed metal structure which is surrounded by small multicolored Murano glass plates which reflect the light and give all its poetry to this luminaire.

POOPA STOPPERS by Pascal Bouillault - 2021

Inspired by fishing floats, the POOPA STOPPERS designed by Pascal Bouillault constitute a large collection of lightings with a playful design.

Made in France thanks to the skills of local artisans, POOPA BOUCHONS are high quality products. Combining selected materials and meticulous finishes, they are available in a large selection, often renewed, of colored harmonies, some in very small series; and others that can be personalized on demand.

Rare Lotus lamp - Carlo Nason Mazzega model LT 305 ca 1960/69

This magnificent table lamp is in Murano glass. Its creator, Carlo Nason grew up in a family of master glassmakers and was himself trained in this art.
